

Period of Activity: October 1, 2015 - September 30, 2016

EMERGENCY RELIEF

+36 Grants, Loans & In-Kind Assistance
Totaling: $179,397

+220 Artists
Benefitted from our other emergency recovery services, such as referrals and counseling

TYPES OF EMERGENCIES

"Thanks to CERF+, I was able to get the jumpstart I needed to begin again. They helped me engage in an amazingly supportive community and reached out to Skutt, who donated a kiln. Thanks to CERF+, I'm able to be in my studio and start creating again."
— Ben Medansky, Ceramic Artist

+ ARTIST RESPONDERS

Mentored arts organizations drafted into service as "artist responders" in the wake of major disasters, including:

Arrowmont School of Arts and Crafts
Gatlinburg, TN

Howard County Arts Council
Ellicott City, MD

Vermont Studio Center
Johnson, VT

EDUCATION + TRAINING

"COVER YOUR A's" Artists Career Protection Curriculum

+9 Art Schools/Art Depts. & Career Services Staff Enrolled
+ used at 30 Art Schools
= 1,200 to 1,500

Anticipated students at the certificate, BFA and MFA levels will receive career protection instruction as part of their professional practice classes in the current academic year.

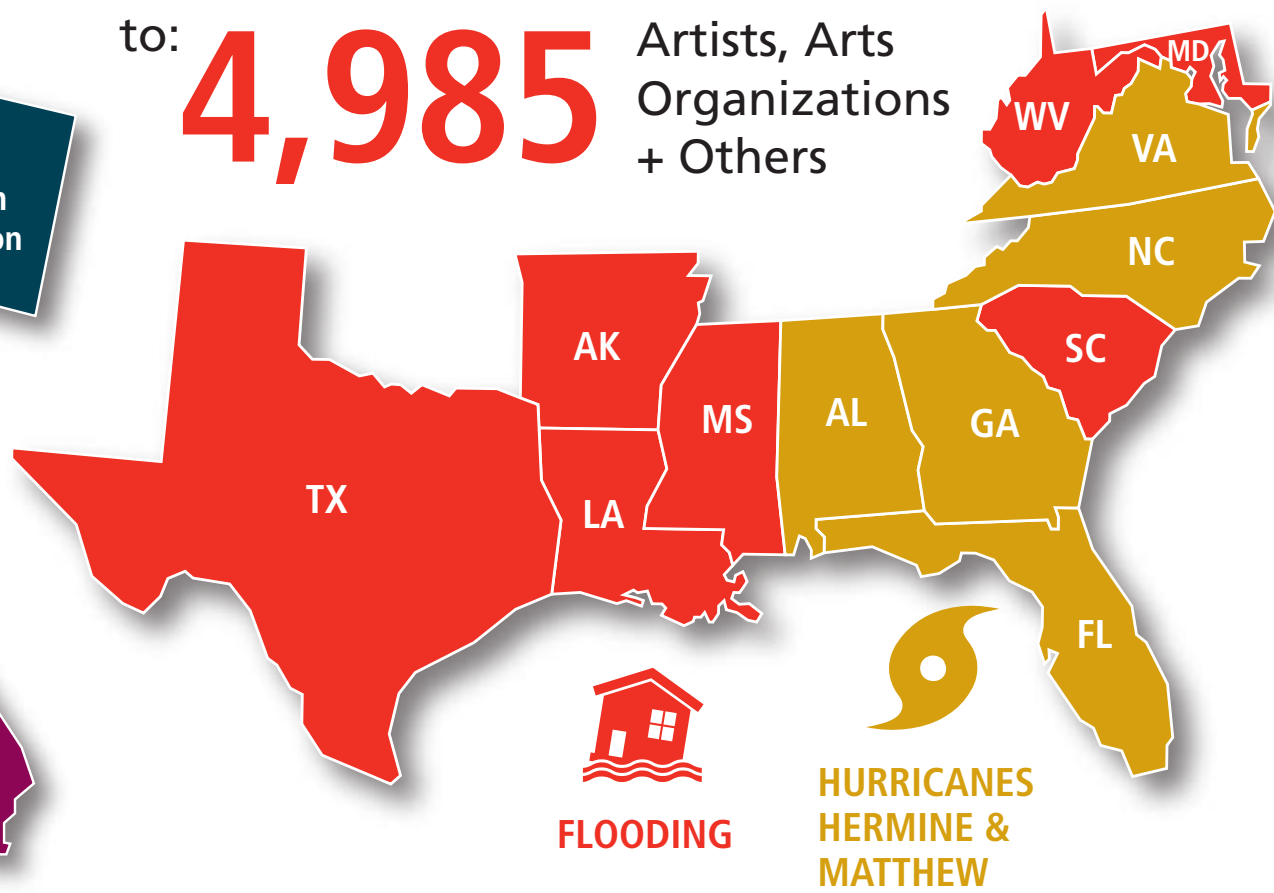

"Everybody needs to know about what CERF+ does and I am on a one-person crusade to do just that. If I help just one creative person prepare to survive the worst their career, it'll have been more than worth it."
— Greg Shelnett, Chair and Professor of Art, Clemson University

+ DISASTER ALERTS

to: 4,985 Artists, Arts Organizations + Others

WINTER STORMS in Washington

WILDFIRES in California

ADVOCACY

- + Co-sponsored Arts Advocacy Day underscoring the need for strong public policies and increased public funding for the arts.
- + Served on planning committee for and participated in the National Endowment for the Arts' Readiness and Resilience convening with various federal agencies and national arts organizations.
- + Gained support via inclusion in Senator Mark Udall's (D Colorado) CREATE Act for CERF+'s proposed regulatory change which would increase access to disaster relief for artists impacted by natural disaster.

WORKSHOPS

Reached +594

Artists, Arts Professionals, and Representatives of Government and Community Agencies + other Relief Providers

by presenting workshops on artists' emergency and career protection safeguards at meetings/conferences of the National Volunteer Organizations Active in Disaster, National Assembly of State Arts Agencies' Folk and Traditional Arts Peer Group, Oklahoma Arts Conference, Vermont Crafts Council, and St. Louis Volunteer Lawyers and Accountants for the Arts.

+ cerfplus.org

Upgraded and merged our two websites (CERF+ and the Studio Protector) into a "MEGA-RESOURCE" that is FULLY MOBILE, EASIER TO NAVIGATE, and more VISUAL & INTERACTIVE.

AWARD OF DISTINCTION from the American Craft Council

2016 American Craft Council Awards
MASTERS
AWARD OF DISTINCTION
cerf+ 30+

CERF+ received the American Craft Council's Award of Distinction, presented to individuals, museums, organizations, publications or schools, with 25+ years of service, who have made significant contributions to the craft field.

ARTIST LEGACY + PLANNING

Organized "LISTENING/LEARNING SESSIONS" on the topic of artist legacy planning at annual conferences for:

- The National Council on Education for the Ceramic Arts
- The Furniture Society

"CERF+ is uniquely positioned to be a leader in highlighting, preserving and fostering critical discussions on late career artists."

— Paul Sacaridiz, Director, Haystack Mountain School of Crafts; CERF+ Board Member

+ Launched a new "how-to" video: "SALVAGING MOLD-DAMAGED ARTWORK"

viewed over 1,000 times in the month after the summer floods in Louisiana and Hurricane Matthew

SUPPORTED BY:

+ MOVEMENT BUILDING
